Henrico High School
Richmond, Virginia

The Scene Today

Activity on campus repeats day after day, year after year. Stars make their appearance season after season in athletic events. There are dramatic moments and comical moments with a variety of individuals involved. Special occurrences continue to make the news of Henrico High School. Just as television does, Henrico depicts all facets of life.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA
AT BIRMINGHAM

HAPPY DAYS are here again when students do what they do the best, whether it's riding a donkey, yelling at a pep rally, or dancing in the gym.

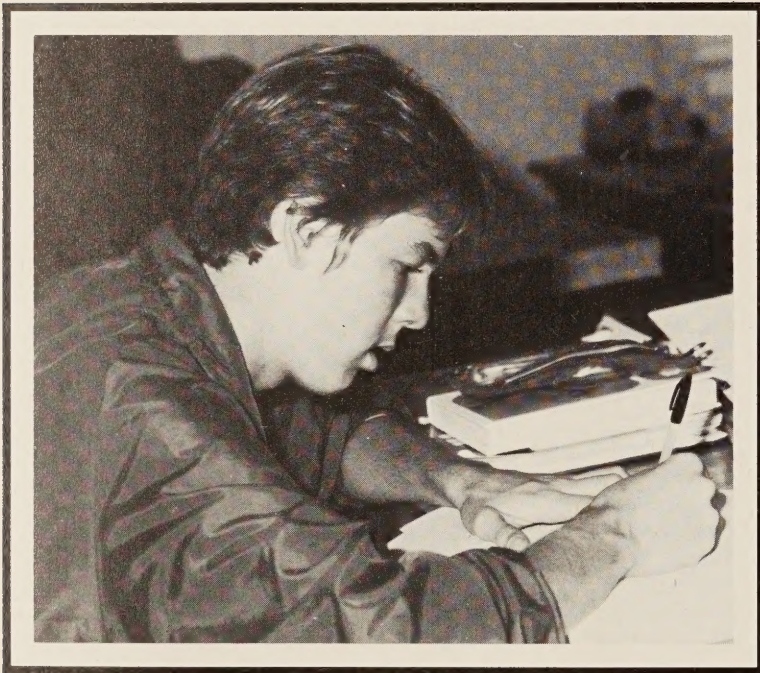

REAL PEOPLE make up the population on our proud reservation: freshmen busy learning the ropes of high school, sophomores wrapped up in money-making projects, juniors occupied with their plans of prom, and seniors making plans for graduation.

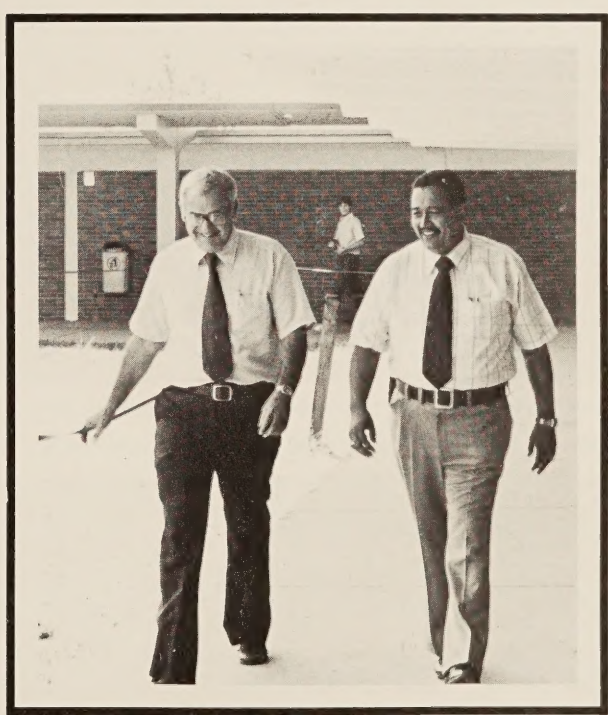

The MIND READERS anticipate the future students as they guide, direct, and teach them.

DIFFERENT STROKES offer opportunities for everyone to find their own thing. It may be the chess club or the safety club — each student has the chance to become involved in extracurricular activities.

The HHS WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS is viewed year round. The stars shine bright in places other than the sky while they participate in their favorite sports.

The PRICE IS RIGHT allows our patrons and the surrounding community to support Henrico High School and to benefit from the opportunity to attract consumers to their businesses.

Homecoming at Henrico

The Homecoming Program this year consisted of the game on Friday, October 5 and the dance the following night.

During the game the mighty Warriors beat the Patriots with the score of 7-0. The highlight of Friday's activities came at halftime, when the Homecoming Queen, Yolanda Archer, and the Princess, Michelle Diaz, were announced.

Reminiscing was the theme for Saturday's dance. J.J. and Company set the atmosphere for the dancers. The court was presented to the crowd and the presentation brought back many memories to the returning alumni.

“Two Tickets, Please”

Recognizing a familiar face in the ticket office, the 1980 Totem Pole staff dedicates the yearbook to Mr. Hays Bowling. He is presently the ticket coordinator of school activities. While thriving on helping others, Mr. Bowling teaches ICT and sponsors VICA. He has thirty-two years of teaching experience. Ten of these have been at Henrico High School. Mr. Bowling expresses his warmth for the Warriors through strong leadership, versatility, and friendliness. For the past four years, he has been an active participant on the hospitality committee. Stocking and collecting money from the vending machines is one of his many voluntary contributions. The devotion of educators such as Mr. Hays Bowling keeps H.H.S. “looking good.”

HAPPY DAYS

Hats Off to Henrico

This fall, H-Teens IV sponsored a spirit hat day at Henrico. Creativity and imagination were evident as individuals proudly wore their unique and colorful hats. It was held the week of the football game with our arch-rival, Hermitage. Announcements and posters around campus encouraged students to wear hats to show our school spirit and support. There was an overwhelming participation by the student body and even some of the faculty. Hat day was a great success which we hope will become a tradition at Henrico.

Joining Forces

The Donkey Basketball game, sponsored by the Junior Class, was an example of student — teacher cooperation at Henrico. The profits of the combined forces helped to provide the school with a desperately needed Xerox machine and to surplus the Junior class treasury. The outcome of the game was a faculty victory; however, both the students and faculty profited.

The new warrior around campus this year is Manuel Garza, the foreign exchange student. He is a citizen of Mexico and a resident of Monterrey. He enjoys basketball and playing the guitar. Besides speaking his own language Spanish, he is trying to improve his English. Manuel is an active member of AFS, FHA, and Key Club. He is also, the H-Teens sweetheart. After Graduation, he plans to attend college and pursue a career in business in Mexico.

TRADING

Get Smart!

Every school has something to boast about and Henrico is no exception. The warriors are very proud of the students who excelled in the academic area. These honorable students were chosen as Boys' /Girls' State delegates, alternates, and there was one chosen as a Governor's School participant. This year's Boys' State was held at Lynchburg College. Our representatives attended seminars, listened to various speakers, and participated in athletic competition. Similar activities took place at Longwood College where Girls' State was held.

Our one representative attended Governor's School for the gifted. While he was there he attended classes of his choosing and went on field trips. We also had one Governor's School Alternate.

Good Times

In our pep rallies, students and faculty unite to show their excitement and "warrior pride". The band, cheerleaders, majorettes, and many others combine forces to create enthusiasm. Henrico honors and recognizes our teams and students for their success. Mr. Warrior presents a special award to the most spirited class. Students welcome pep rallies as a break in the day to cheer and show their support for our school.

More Than Assembling

Assemblies at Henrico are special events, because they are the times when the students and faculty are gathered. An assembly is a place where the students see the performing talents of their fellow classmates and welcome guest speakers. During assemblies, outstanding students receive honors and special awards such as honor society and quill and scroll. Assemblies also offer the warriors an opportunity to order their annuals. Because of the many events held during this time, assemblies are greatly welcomed by both students and faculty.

Dramatizing

Drama is an important part of curriculum at Henrico. Throughout the school term, many productions are put on by the talented students: Senior Play, the School Musical and One-Act Plays. The students are involved in one-act competition at Highland Springs, where the neighboring county schools compete. In addition, drama classes are conducted to teach students the many aspects of acting.

Being Prepared

Each day a number of students attend Highland Springs Vocational Technical Center. These students spend half their day learning trades which will better prepare them for the years ahead. There is a variety of trades offered ranging from air conditioning to nursing. Morning Tech students return to Henrico for their afternoon classes, while afternoon tech students depart for Tech after attending their morning classes at Henrico.

Just a Lil' Bit Country . .

Dressed in their faded blue jeans and straw hats, the students of Henrico High attended the annual Sadie Hawkins dance. Sponsored by Junior Civitan, the club crowned Carolyn Rowe as Queen and Sweetheart for the next year. With the theme Sweet Home Alabama, the fun lasted from 8:00 until 11:00.

The students of Henrico spent a Saturday in the Park at the prom this year. The junior class worked hard to make it one of the best proms at Henrico. Following tradition, the Seniors formed their class number. In appreciation, junior class members Kim Beard and Steve Cooke distributed gifts to the class sponsors; Mrs. Ganzert and Miss Bishop. Crimson provided the music.

Reminiscing Recalls Fond Memories

Reigned over by the Homecoming Queen Yolanda Archer, the dance provided enjoyment for all who attended. The theme "Reminiscing" chosen by the senior class, aroused fond memories of past years at Henrico. The Homecoming court of "79" was presented and music was rendered by J.J. and Company. The dance was a tremendous success.

Ice Castles

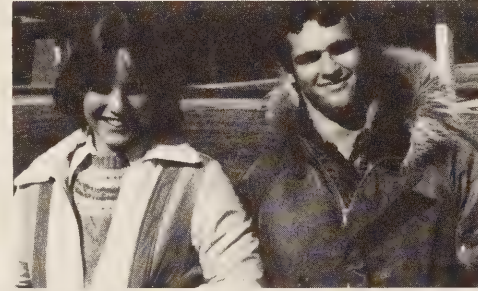

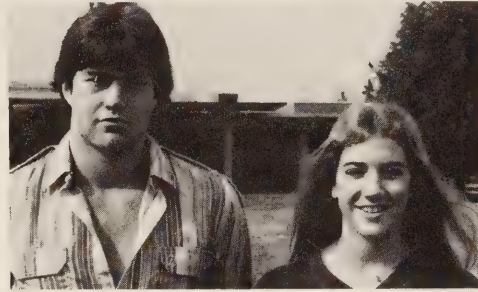

Ice Castles, the theme of the 1980 Winter Carnival dance, broke the hum-drum of the everyday patterns of academic life. The mood of the dance was set by the band, Turning Point. It was intensified by the announcement of the court and the crowning of Ted Atkinson and Kim Beard, King and Queen. The dance, sponsored by the Student Government Association, was a success.

A New Beginning

It was just the end of another school year for most of the students at Henrico, but for the seniors it was a beginning: a time for moving on to bigger and better things, leaving behind old friends to meet goals, and searching for something new and exciting. The graduation ceremony was held on June 6 at the University of Richmond Robins Center. As the seniors departed from their high school days, they were eager to find out what the future held for them.

As students graduate from Henrico High School in this new decade, they face opportunities and encounters for the future. Graduates will be responsible for shaping the nation's future. Going through life and making choices for the paths that they will follow, individuals will be compelled to make decisions based on the developments of society. These decisions will reflect the educational foundation that students from Henrico High School have received.

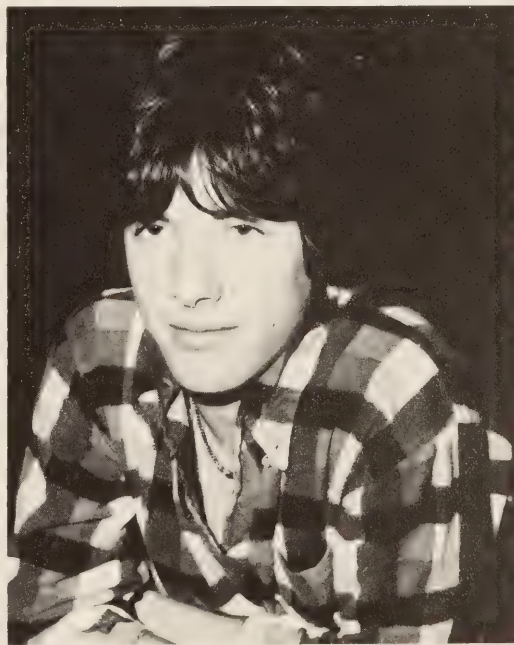

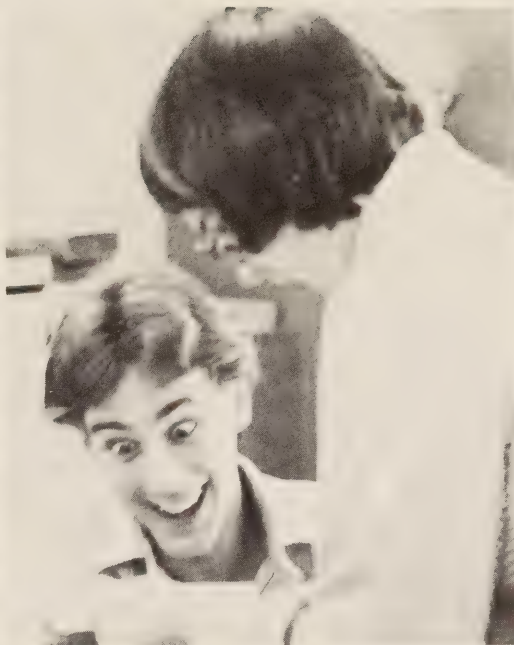

In the 1980's, people need to unify to combat internal and external opposition. United States citizens will research conservation methods and will advance energy technology to strengthen the country. During times of crises American will use their intellectual power as well as their physical power to enforce the decisions made by their anchor men.

To accomplish goals which will represent the desires of the entire population, inevitably the government will focus on increasing individual input. Recent world events in the economic and political arenas have somewhat diminished the country's apathy. The activators of this new decade must look at themselves more as citizens of the world rather than merely as citizens of the country. The world-wide challenges of the 80's will be confronted by the present generation that passes through the doors of Henrico High School.

REAL PEOPLE

Senior Play

Edward (Brian Shook) and Alice Ann (Kim Beard) talk science at the dance.

Kay (Katy Gorman) tells Gail (Tara Carter) and Mary Jane (Lyn Hovatter) about the stuck pot at the boy's school.

Kay and Bob (Geof Ferguson) dance the night away.

Jim (Alton Moody) waits for his dreamgirl.

The Stuck Pot

The finale proves to be a crowded scene.

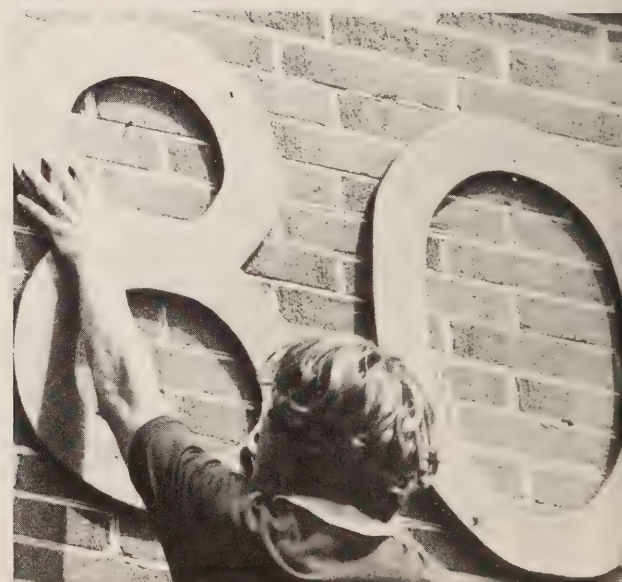

Senior Class Searches for Tomorrow.

The Class of 80 has worked hard for four years to accomplish their goals. Not only have they worked hard in their classes, but they also have had many successful class projects over the years, such as selling candy, and mums, putting on a donkey basketball game, and sponsoring the prom. This year the class really pulled together. Missy Strauss, Debbie Barlow, Scott McKee and Kim Beard were elected to head the class in this all-important year with the help of Miss Bishop, class sponsor, who has patiently given of her time and self. As the seniors look towards graduation they also start their search for tomorrow and a bright future.

This summer the Junior Class was busy washing buses to make money to pay for the most important event of the year, Prom. Pictured at left are the energetic new class sponsor Mrs. Barbara Blaylock and the dedicated class officers: Donna Lucord — Secretary, Matt Brown — Vice-President, Michelle Sprouse — Treasurer, and Derek Leake — President. Under their leadership the class really took off. Mr. Nathan Young is shown here presenting a check for $1,800, made during the bus wash. Look out 1981, here we come.

The sophomores are traditionally the young and the restless.

Karen Smith, Anne Marie Johnson, Cynthia Bryant, and Yvette Davis steer the class of '82 in their second year at Henrico. Driver Education has become an integral part of the sophomore life style. Pep rallies, painting signs, and washing cars are the ways the class shows their spirit and togetherness. The best is yet to come in 1982. The sophomores' opinions of what looks good at Henrico are seen throughout the section.

Are Freshmen Really "Little Rascals?"

The Class of '83 started their freshman year with the usual confusion. Soon Mr. Dale Svor, class sponsor, organized them into a hard-working unit. Stephanie Williams, Jeff Thompson, Tammy Dudley, and Missy McRae were elected to lead the class in their various activities. The coming years promise to be interesting for the Class of '83. Freshman opinions of what looks good at Henrico High are seen throughout the section.

Devoted Friend and Supporter

Fostering pride, learning, sportsmanship, and unity, Dr. Edgar Wallin serves Henrico High School with devotion. He demonstrates support through his presence at athletic events, on and around campus, at

P.T.A. meetings, at academic functions, and at social affairs. He is attuned to student concerns and attempts to provide a satisfying atmosphere for all associated with Henrico High School.

H-Troop

John Brown

There were two new assistant principals on the staff this year, they were Miss Elizabeth Conner and Mr. John Brown. The entire staff stood behind Dr. Wallin and gave Henrico total support. They take pride in their students and enjoy their place of work — Henrico High School!

The Guiding Lights

The Guidance Counselors and Secretaries guide the principals as well as the students. The secretaries help the principals with all their basic needs, such as writing letters and finding students that they need to talk to. The guidance counselors are very helpful to the freshmen and sophomores in preparing their schedules. They get the juniors and seniors informed in plenty of time to take PSAT's and SAT's. The guidance counselors help prepare each student for their college and career choices.

English Excels

Of the members of the English Department faculty, one has been teaching here since the school opened in 1962. Mrs. Dorothy Payne has been here the entire 17 years of Henrico High School's history.

The English Department has quite a widespread field of hobbies. Among them are showing dogs, sailing, and working crossword puzzles. Naturally, the majority of the English teachers listed reading as one of their hobbies.

Most teachers claimed dogs and cats as their favorite pets, although there were some goats and birds also. Most of the English teachers had no pets at all.

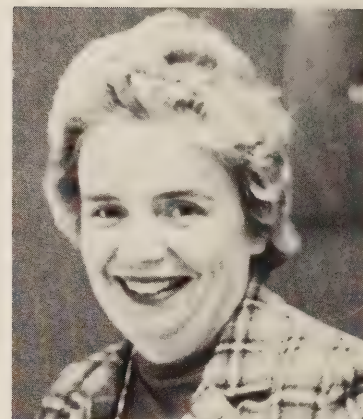

When asked what looks best about Henrico, one teacher commented, "The enthusiasm of both students and faculty looks best to me. We all seem to know we have the best school; therefore, everyone seems to pull together for the good of the whole school. People seem to care about each other here."

The Jumping Jacks

There was a tie in the Physical Education Department for the wittiest person. Earl Garbett and Mel Ardis both seem to be full of jokes and laughs. The department felt that everyone was the friendliest possible.

Naturally all types of sports are enjoyed by the physical education teachers as hobbies. Fishing seemd to be the most popular hobby since three of the teachers like this leisurely sport. One teacher also enjoys cooking and art in his free time.

Mel Ardis is a new teacher in the department. Previously he taught three years at Moody Middle School.

Both Joan Darden and Steve Vitek have been here since Henrico opened. We talked to Coach Vitek concerning changes which have taken place since the opening. He feels that Henrico should not change just for the sake of change and let many "old-time" trends be abandoned. He also thinks we should go "back to the Basics."

Driving . . . Scientifically

The teachers in the Driver's Education and Science Departments responded to our questionnaire with a variety of answers. We got a six-way tie for the wittiest. For the friendliest, the response was a little more unified, as Mr. Mathis and Mr. Sharper tied for the title.

Between the two departments the most popular pets are cats. One teacher said that he had pets "too numerous to mention".

Their hobbies include camping, tennis, and playing in a country-western band. When these teachers were asked "What looks best about Henrico to you?" they replied, "The grounds, the students, the Warrior Head, the new administration, and the athletic program."

Marvelous Math

Neely Axselle and Barbara Mitchell were voted the wittiest among the teachers in the Math Department. There was also a tie between Martha Walden and Sarah Parkerson for being the friendliest Math teacher.

Reading, sewing, and needlework seem to be the favorite hobbies in this department but there are a variety of others.

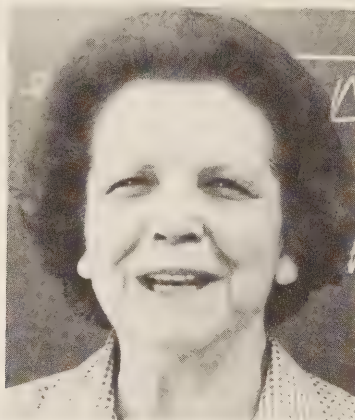

Many different answers were received in response to the question, "What about Henrico looks best to you?" One teacher felt that the school spirit is terrific while another said that the appearance of our school and also student dress shows lots of pride. Another teacher replied, "The majority of the students are cooperative and a pleasure to work with."

Foreign Cooking

Among the foreign language department teachers, Agnes Stacia was voted the friendliest. Along with her, Nora Newell and Faye Rollings ended in a tie for the wittiest.

The Home Economics Department is too few in number to fit into these categories, for there are only three teachers in it.

The hobbies in this whole group include playing the guitar, skiing, crafts, golf, reading, sewing, and horseback riding. The different names for their pets are Trouble, Fancy, Schultz, Maisy Day, and Jake.

When asked what looks best about Henrico, they united in saying the flowers, the grounds, and the cooperation of the students. One teacher replied, "The school spirit and the united effort of faculty to make Henrico an outstanding institution of learning looks best to me!"

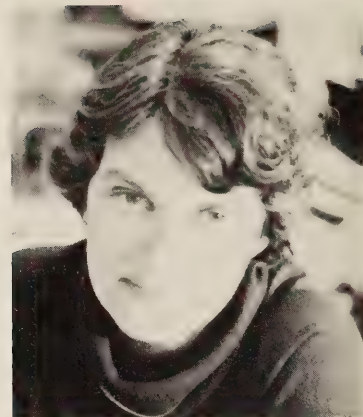

Busy Bees

Among the Business and Distributive Education Department faculty members Mrs. Frederick has taught here the longest. She has been at Henrico since the school opened in 1962.

Mrs. Shelton was voted the wittiest, while the majority favored the entire department as friendliest. Their pets range from a toy poodle named "Taffy" to a kitten called "Kaz".

Some of their hobbies include singing, dancing, racketball, rugby, and horseback riding.

The school spirit at Henrico looks best to them. They are proud of the students and the appearance of the grounds. One teacher explained it this way: "The individuality of each student is the factor which makes this job interesting and rewarding beyond anything else I could imagine doing."

Arts and Crafts

Among the teachers in the Fine Arts and Industrial Arts Departments, Pamela Cosby has been at Henrico the longest with ten years to her credit. The next in line is Dickie Jones with four years behind him.

The most popular hobby is painting. Some of the other hobbies include scuba diving, photography, and woodworking.

Cats were the favorite in the pet category. There were a few dogs and some teachers with no pets at all.

When asked what looks best about Henrico, some of these teachers replied, "The friendly atmosphere", and others said, "The students' enthusiasm and dedication."

Sensational Studies

Among the teachers in the Social Studies Department, Miss Bishop was voted as the friendliest. Mr. Colley was thought to be the wittiest with Mr. Blackburn and Mr. Ganzert following close behind.

The most popular hobby among the history teachers is tennis. Other hobbies include skiing, traveling, bowling, photography, and survival cooking.

Many of the history teachers have dogs and cats, but one of the teachers has a goat named William and another has a cockateal.

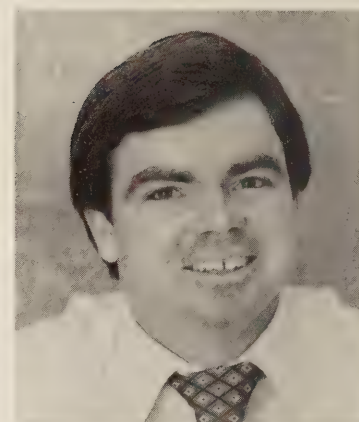

When these teachers were questioned as to what looks best to them at Henrico, most replied the students. They feel that the students have great school spirit and get along extremely well together.

Individualistics

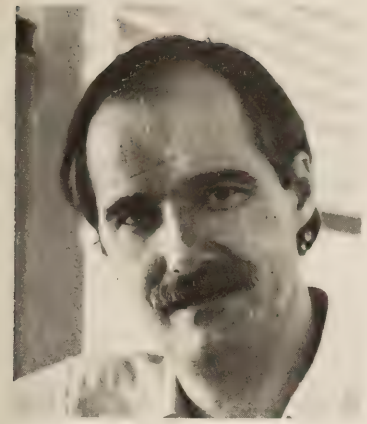

Jane Barthurst has been here longer than any of the other Special Education teachers. The teachers in this department unanimously voted for Pat West as the wittiest and Jane Barthurst was selected as friendliest.

Most of the Special Education teachers have no pets but with those who do dogs are the favorite.

Reading was the favorite hobby but there were others such as visiting restaurants, snow and grass skiing, and playing backgammon.

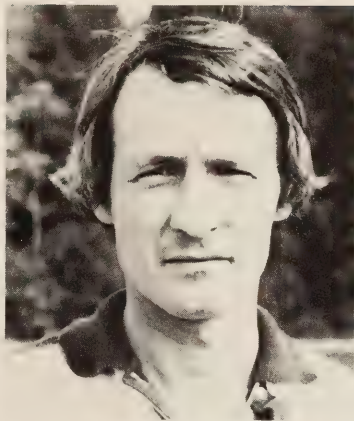

When we asked these teachers, "What looks best about Henrico to you?" the most frequent answer was the appearance of the campus and grounds. One of the teachers said, "Compared to other high schools the total program looks the best!"

DIFFERENT STROKES

Good Morning America

... from VICA, DECA, FHA, and FBLA. These four organizations are very well known on Henrico's campus. They participate in many school activities but they also have many contacts with the outside world. These people are learning how to cope with and take charge of tomorrow's society. A bright smile is a natural part of their day. These clubs are known for their continuous hard work and dedication.

As the World Turns . . .

many different countries and cultures are unveiled, and people of various colors, sizes, and opinions are revealed. Communication is displayed through actions, expressions, and, most prominently, speech. Spanish, French, German, and Latin classes are taught at Henrico. These classes participate in many exciting activities throughout the year, which include conventions, field trips, and guest speakers. They are a definite addition to the atmosphere at Henrico High School.

Unity, Strategy, and Adventure

A.F.S. works to unify students of all countries. They house and make friends with foreign students, and they make them feel welcome in this part of the world. Mrs. Barbra Shelton is the sponsor of A.F.S.

The name of the game is strategy, for the Chess Club. They learn new moves slowly but progress rapidly. They compete among themselves to achieve self-satisfaction. Mr. John Gallier is the sponsor of the Chess Club.

X.F.S., The science club, experiences many adventures. They accumulate skills from trips and experiments. Ms. Barbra Reynolds is the sponsor of X.F.S.

CARE

The Safety Club and Red Cross are caring organizations. Their main objective is to help keep people safe and healthy. The Safety Club, sponsored by Mr. Sharper, teaches students to be more careful when they drive. It also teaches them to maintain highway safety. The Red Cross Club, sponsored by Mrs. Stevens, cares about people in trouble. The members collect money for this useful cause. These clubs show worthwhile contributions to their community by showing that they care.

TAXI

A synonym for an assistant is TAXI. A taxi works to help people the same way assistants do. The Clinic, Library, and Office assistants work together to help the students and faculty of Henrico High School get things done more efficiently. They enjoy running errands and learning as they go along. They take great pride in helping Henrico High School run more smoothly.

Frustrations Build Solid Foundations

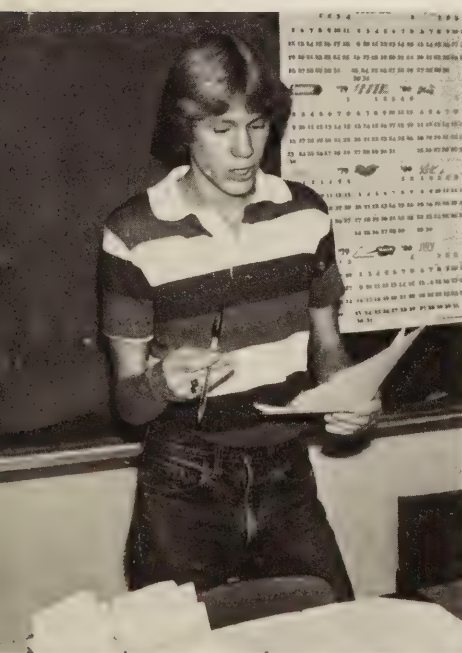

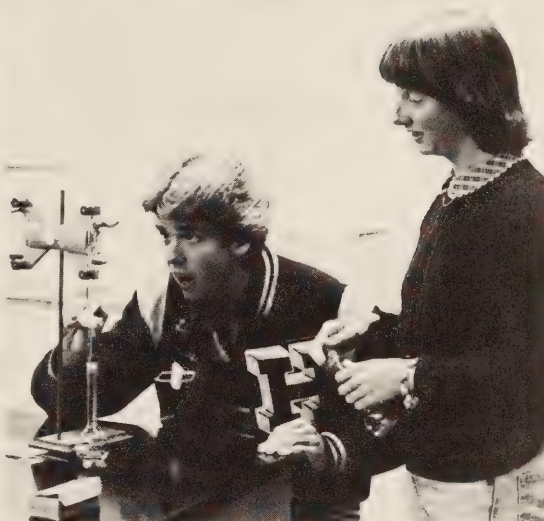

S.O.D.A., Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, and Thespians are all hardworking organizations. Each spends a lot of time studying and learning. Through their great efforts and frustrations they are building strong foundations for the future. These foundations are not only beneficial to themselves, but to others also. The intelligence and concern of these groups will help to better our community in the future.

For Your Information . . . HOW and Smoke Signals magazines keep Henrico's students informed.

HOW is a literary magazine, sponsored by Mrs. Janet Lewis and Miss Dianna Dix. The magazine gives the school a variety of art and literature from creative students at Henrico. The Staff works hard all year to produce a well-written and imaginatively illustrated magazine.

Smoke Signals is the school newspaper, sponsored by Mr. Robert Hayes. It is an information sheet which informs students about current affairs at Henrico and it is published monthly.

All Part of the Game

Hostessing Fall Sports Banquet, attending cheerleading camp at the University of Richmond, acting as guides for the P.T.A. parent night, and providing refreshments for teams after practice are some of the special activities that the cheerleaders have done this year. Besides these special events the cheerleaders have their regular activities which consist of cheering for all sports and pep rallies and daily practices.

Ms. Shumate, sponsor, and Mrs. West, co-sponsor, work hard to coordinate the cheerleader squads. Their active participation in all athletic events promotes the spirit of Henrico High School.

Black Heritage and Y.A.C.

"Brotherhood of Excellence" was the theme of Black Heritage Week at Henrico. Speakers, entertainment, and discussions were included in student activities for the week. John Houze, sophomore, said, "Black History Week is a good idea, and Blacks have made many great achievements which set a precedent for other minorities to follow."

Improving student attitude, planning cafeteria meals and improving relations between cafeteria staff and students is the function of the Youth Advisory Council.

Beauty and Brawn

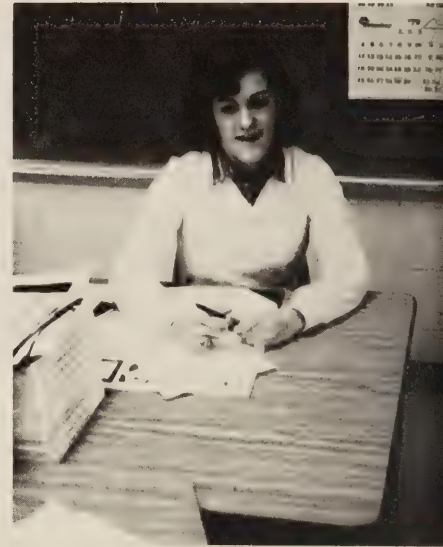

An athletic scholarship is awarded to an outstanding girl athlete every year by the Girls Athletic Association. The club also sponsors a chicken dinner each year to raise money for this scholarship. The girls meet weekly to make posters and to discuss new ideas with their sponsor, Ms. Betty White. The girls contribute to many athletic-related projects and activities at Henrico.

H-Teens . . . Reliable, Responsible, and Rewarding

There are four active girls clubs on campus at Henrico High School. These girls call themselves H-Teens. They contribute much to the school and community by raising money and doing service projects. Other activities include bake sales, car washes, and the selling of concessions at sporting events. This year the senior H-Teens sponsored a very successful hat day in the fall. They also plan to give a $400 scholarship to the most active member at the end of the year. The freshman, sophomore, and junior H-Teens look to the seniors as a model and hope to do as well in the years to come.

Strike Up the Band

Making Wind Symphony is a real honor. Only a few select students are chosen. Each year Wind Symphony has a spring festival in addition to the winter and spring concerts they perform for Henrico.

The Concert Band is made up of former band members. This band also performs winter and spring concerts for Henrico.

Both bands practice every day to play new melodies successfully. Their conductor is Mr. Leon Auman.

Name That Tune

A new sponsor for the singing groups came to Henrico this year, Mrs. Lee Hanchey. Girls Choir, Concert Choir, and Girls Chorus enjoy giving pleasure to people through their singing talents. They perform for nursing homes, clubs, and community groups, as well as regularly scheduled school concerts. These groups rehearse every day and work hard to build expertise in performing. They are indeed a huge asset to our school.

Keys Open Doors

The Henrico High School Key Club, sponsored by the North Richmond Kawanis Club, has opened many doors in the lives of its members by showing them responsibility in running an organization.

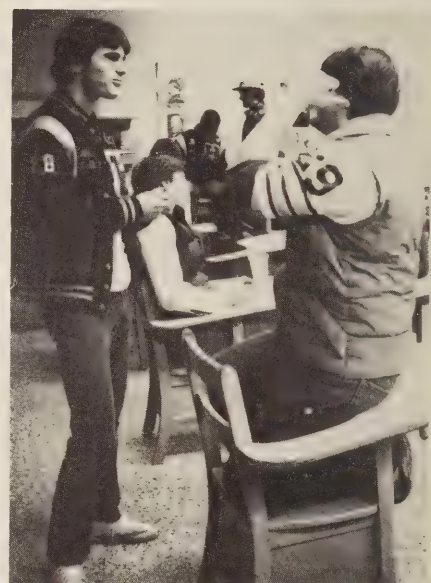

The Key Club lists as its activities their annual Spaghetti Supper which is held before every Henrico-Hermitage Football game, a car wash, cleaning up at school on Saturday mornings, Stunt Night participation, and attending Sunday church services with the Henrico H-Teens. The school prides itself in having such a fine club to serve it and the community.

Civies Float to Win

The Henrico High School Junior Civitan Club, sponsored by the Downtown Richmond Civitan Club, started off the year on the right foot with a first place Homecoming float as they presented their theme of "Pave the Patriots." Junior Civitan Club sponsor Jim Vega and members have had a full year of activities which included Scott Nunally and Gil Wells' nomination, by the Senior Civitans, to attend the Freedoms Foundation Youth Leadership Seminar at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

Other club activities have consisted of clean-up at school on Saturday mornings, helping the Senior Civitans with Bingo on Sunday nights, attending church services, and their annual Sadie Hawkins Dance at which the sweetheart for the coming year is named. Henrico has many fine service clubs and the Junior Civitan Club is proud to be one of them.

This year the Student Government Association is striving to make the students at Henrico High School one big family. With the cooperation of the principals, faculty, clubs, and classes, it feels that this year can be a big success. At the beginning of the year the S.G.A. helped the freshman class with their orientation and with their election of officers. In February it will hold its Winter Carnival Dance. The S.G.A. is striving to make this year a happy and rewarding year for all.

is what this year's yearbook staff seems to be saying as they rush to make deadlines. Everyone works together and helps each other in order to assure the students that they will receive their yearbook on time. This year's staff has been very fortunate to have the assistance of Debra Marlow and Paige Whitten as sponsors for the second year. They are very dedicated and spend many long hours aiding the staff in their efforts to create the best yearbook possible. With the help of this year's editor Grace Mallory, co-editor Joanne Knapp, and copy editor Dabney Beadles, the staff hopes to produce the best Totem Pole ever.

HHS WIDE WORLD

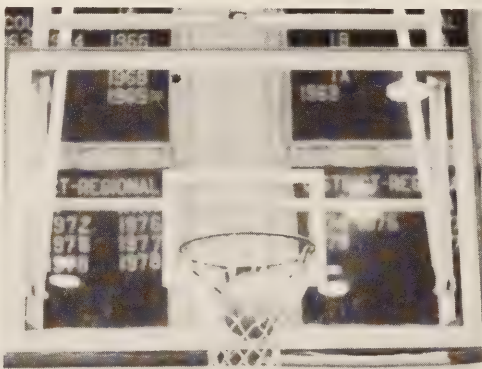

OF SPORTS

Lady Dribblers

Many illnesses and injuries handicapped the Lady Warriors during the season. The girl's varsity basketball team was somewhat young and inexperienced after losing five senior starters from last year. However, Coach Darden, along with co-captains Cheryl Burks and Sarah Dziuba, helped bring the team to a 15-5 record and place third in the district. Sarah Dziuba scored the most points and the most rebounds this season. Cheryl Burks has the most assists. Selected to the all district team were Sarah Dziuba and Brenda Smith.

In the Hoop It Goes

Led by Coach Baker, the Junior Varsity girls' basketball team ended this year with a successful record of 13-3. The captains were Cynthia Bryant and Susan Currier. Donna Mercier was the high scorer for the team. The team was runner-up in the District Tournament. Mrs. Baker felt even though the team was young, she was pleased with their performance this season and she hopes for an equally successful one next year.

Henrico's Advantage

Girls' tennis ended their '79 season with an admirable 9-5 record. Coach Faye Rollings said that the Warriors' toughest competitors were Freeman and the rain. The Co-Captains were Michelle Diaz and Susan Erdman. The team will be losing six talented seniors this year, but with the guidance of Coach Rollings the next year's season will be as good as the past year's.

New Coach Guides Young Team

The Warriors started out this season with a dynamic 5-0 record. Coach Bill Browning, who was "very pleased with the season", showed his ability to lead the team. The win over state-ranked Hampton gave the needed confidence to the team. Although the scores of the last five games did not reflect wins, the team had victory in their hearts. "They put out their best effort and that's all anyone can ask," said Coach Browning. "They were an excellent group of hard-working young men and it was a pleasure working with them." Coach Browning has a great outlook for next year's team, and fond memories from his first year as head coach.

The Morning After

The powerful B-Team of Varsity football played successfully on Saturday mornings. The B-Team consists of any varsity player who did not get a chance to participate on Friday night. They finished their season with an excellent record of five wins and only one loss.

Upper: Team members wait in anticipation for their chance to enter the game.
Lower: The offense and defense quickly change positions to keep the game going.

Thursday Night Thrills

After a first game loss, the ninth grade football team exploded into a successful season. With the excellent leadership of Coaches Elam, Svor, and Criswell, the team finished with a 6-2 record. Henrico's strong defense helped accomplish this by four spectacular shutouts. Coach Criswell was quoted as saying, "It was the first time since the early 70's that a ninth grade team has won six games. We finished as strong as any team in the league." Henrico High will be seeing a lot more of these future varsity greats in the next three years.

Eleven Is Enough!

The Cross Country team this year proved to be champions, with the aid of tri-captains Bill Hudson, Matt Rich and Bruce Sherrod. Coach Wagner led the team to an excellent record of 7-1. The team won first place in the District with the help of the number one runner, Matt Rich. The season was a successful one for Henrico.

District Basketball Champs: Fourth Time Around!

The Varsity Basketball Team has enjoyed a successful season. The Warriors (17-3) captured their fourth straight Colonial District Championship. According to Head Coach Guy Davis, "Outstanding players include Darrell Jackson (Sr.), Walter Moore (Sr.), Mike Mansfield (Soph.), Robert Lowry (Sr.), and Ray Smith (Sr.). Others who have contributed significantly include Richard Green, Skeeter Mosby, Matt Brown, and Mike Jarrett." Darrell Jackson has been the team's leading scorer and rebounder throughout the season. He is a strong candidate for all-metro and All-State honors. Key victories this season included two victories over arch-rivals Hermitage and two over Tucker and big wins over Armstrong-Kennedy and Jefferson-Hugenot-Wythe. They finished second in the district tournament in a game that went down to the wire with Jefferson-Hugenot-Wythe causing the Warriors to lose by a two point margin. Coach Guy Davis has once again been named All-Metro Coach and Darrell Jackson was named to the All-Metro team.

Ninth Grade Basketball: Jump, Shout, Knock Yourself Out!

"Although the season was not a success as far as the won-loss record was concerned, I believe every single player that stayed with the team showed that he had a great deal of stamina and was willing to learn." This was the opinion of the leader of the ninth grade basketball team, Coach Szalwinski. The team finished with a 3-13 record. Carl Smith was the leading scorer, averaging six points per game, and the team's hardest worker. The co-captains of the team were Chris Bazemore and Courtney Blain. With continued work and dedication, these players will be Henrico's winners of the future.

Soccer Moves Into Football Territory

Although the varsity soccer team completed their season with only four wins, they achieved many moral victories. Coach Garrett helped them to gain experience and develop their skills. With the aid of tri-captains Mike Boyle, Brian Bruce, and Dalton Chandler the team finished the season with a 4:10:1 record. Coach Garrett is looking forward to a young team returning for their first spring season next year.

J.V. Soccer Flourishes With New Coach

The J.V. Soccer team finished an excellent season this year with a 5-1 record. Coach Artis reported that the team had a strong offense. He was pleased that all team members had a chance to play. The team captains were Henry Briggs, Binky Horning, Bill Smith and Allen Hume. The team's major oppositions this year were the weather and construction of a new soccer field. The team looks forward to a new field and a warm spring season.

Upper: Front row: Quad-captains: Binky Horning, Allan Humes, Henry Briggs, Bill Smith. Wrestlers' Arms Go Up!

The Wrestling team completed another fine season, equaling their best dual meet record ever. They finished 10-1. The regular season was highlighted by defeating the previously unbeaten Douglas Freeman 26-18. They were also able to capture the Hopewell Christmas Tournament Championship again for the seventh time in eight years. Everyone contributed to the team's success with work and dedication. The team was led by seniors Ray Young, Lex Lutto, Vic Reynolds, Norman Lee, Mike Saunders, Wilbur Watts, and Paul Talman. Consistent performances were also turned in by juniors Todd Curry, Tim Holmes, Tim Matthews, and Dennis Moore, along with sophomore Scooter Harris, and freshmen Chris Brown and David Palmer. In the district competition Todd Curry placed first and in the regionals placed second. Tim Holmes and Tim Matthews placed second in district.

Just Starting Out

Henrico started a new Junior Varsity softball team last spring. The young lady Warriors gained much experience and strengthened their basic skills during their first season. Coach West reported that not many schools in the district have a J.V. softball team. For this reason Henrico had problems scheduling their games. As well as playing J.V. teams, Henrico was occasionally faced with playing the second string varsity teams. Coach West has a good outlook for the girls' second season.
